TWO NOTED STARS APPEAR AT GRAND

Hazel Dawn and John Mason
Jointly Starred in "The Fatal Card."

"The Fatal Card," which is recorded in the theatrical annals as one of the most powerful dramas ever produced on the American stage, is being presented today at the Robinson Grand in motion pictures. This great dramatic triumph by C. Hadson Chambers and B. C. Stephenson, was released on the Paramount program. John Mason, one of the greatest actors of the modern stage, and Hazel Dawn, the captivating and youthful star, are jointly presented. The combination of two such stars on the screen is sufficiently unusual to attract attention wherever this notable photodrama is exhibited.

Tomorrow, Ethel Barrymore, the popular dramatic actress, who has a distinct and immense following among stage and screen devotees, will be seen on the Metro program in "The Final Judgment."

The World Film Corporation presents the five-part photoplay, "The Flash of an Emerald," based upon a well-known magazine story of the same name, today at the Orpheum theatre.

ARTHUR BAUER in "MILESTONES OF LIFE"

Robert Warwick adds a new character to his repertoire, that of a polished and unscrupulous man of affairs who stops at nothing to gain his ends. First of all, Lucius distinguishes himself as a safe robber and then seeing an enormously valuable emerald in the possession of an elderly lady, steals into her hotel, chloroforms her, her maid and child, and secures the emerald.

Later on he grows careless in his success. He falls in love with a girl to whom he presents the emerald. The girl is the daughter of the woman whom he robbed of the emerald. This faux pas leads to his undoing, and there is nothing left for a villain of his type but suicide.

A charming love story runs through the photoplay which has the advantage of beautiful settings and clever direction at the hands of Albert Capellani.

Tomorrow, a wonderful five-act Mutual masterpiece, "Milestones of Life," featuring Mignon Anderson and Louise Nutter will be the special offering.

Charlotte Granville, who made her first appearance in this country several seasons ago with Weedon Grossmith, has been engaged by Grace George for an important role in Shaw's "Major Barbara."

The Lewis-Oliver Players will offer George Arliss' original version of "The Devil" at the Palace theater for three days starting tonight. Jack Lewis will be seen at his best in the title role, while Miss Edna Grandin will be seen to good advantage in the part of Olga. In fact the entire company have excellent parts and a first class production is promised.

For the last half of the week this company will offer Bertha M. Clay's beautiful love story, "Thorns and Orange Blossoms." There will be a matinee every day starting Wednesday.

William B. Mack, who gave such an excellent performance as the overworked secretary in "What Money Can't Buy," has a playlet called "Around the Law."

"The Politicians," billed as the stellar attraction at the Bijou theater today, and featuring in the titular roles those inimitable comedians, Bickel and Watson, is a charming five part comedy founded on Aaron Hoffman's celebrated stage farce of that name.

Throughout the comedy sparkles with unique, laugh-provoking situations. Imagine a pair of political pirates stealing the local suffrage party in a small, straight-laced New England village and utilizing its machinery to steal a mayoralty election. Earnest women and girls are involved in farcical situations faster than they can extricate themselves and the results are decidedly funny. Bickel and Watson are supported by a star cast of fun makers including Snitz Edwards, Ruby Hoffman and Florence Morrison. Tuesday's bill will include a Wallingford picture, "The Master Touch." This one is recommended as the best effort of Max Figman, Burr McIntosh and Lotita Robertson. "Anselo Lee," a three act Blue Ribbon Vitaphone features Antonio Moreno and Naomi Childers in the leading parts, will be shown also along with a Pathe Daily News.

Madame Materna, the creator of the character of Brunhilde at the first Wagner festival in 1876, recently celebrated her seventieth birthday.

With Director-General Thomas H. Ince in charge and a company of 700 appearing in the scenes, actual production of pictures was begun, last week, at the mammoth new Culver City studios which are being erected in the interest of Ince-Triangle features. Though the plant is by no means completed, one immense set has been finished on one of the eight stages and it was within this that the initial work was done.

Jack Pickford will make his initial appearance under the Diamond S. trade mark when he appears in the strong character role of Toney, a pool shark, in the Selig Diamond special in three reels, "The Making of Crooks," released December 16. Mr. Pickford will be supported by an all-star cast.

WESLEYAN

Team and Coaches Glad Davis and Elkins Cancelled Saturday's Game.

BUCKHANNON, Nov. 22.—The telephone call from Elkins Saturday morning which cancelled Wesleyan's game with Davis-Elkins College was a most welcome one to Wesleyan's players as while they did not anticipate a hard game, the men nevertheless dreaded the uncomfortable trip to Elkins and return and were much pleased to be able to stay at home. The cancellation of the game, too, was pleasing to the large following of Wesleyan fans as it eliminated the possibility of any of the men not being in shape for the West Virginia game. Shumaker, Allen, Singleton, Vance and every other man on the squad will be in the best of shape for Thanksgiving and of course this is of paramount importance to Wesleyan. The worst disappointed set of men perhaps was the bevy of West Virginia players and officials who had come as far as Cranston on their way to see Wesleyan and Davis and Elkins battle there to find out that the game had been cancelled. In the party were Coach Metzger, Captain Leatherwood, Lambert, Rodgers, Webster, Curry, Chenoweth and one or two others and inasmuch as these men have not seen Wesleyan play throughout the year they were somewhat vexed at the cancellation.

Monday and Tuesday will end Wesleyan practice for 1915. The team will not be taken to Fairmont until Wednesday night and the men will be quartered at the Manley hotel as usual.

LARGE SALE

Of Seats for the Wesleyan-West Virginia Game at Fairmont Thursday.

As was expected by those who are in touch with the sporting proclivities of the West Virginia people and in touch also with the interest in the big climax of the football season to be staged at Fairmont on Thanksgiving, the sale of tickets for the big game has exceeded all the expectations of those in charge and if the present rate of interest keeps up not a ticket will be for sale by Wednesday noon preceding the game. Locally Welch and Fullerton are handling the sale and they report that their sale is as large as at the same relative period in their Washington and Jefferson-Wesleyan sale for the game on our own field. Over 3,000 tickets have already been sold and it is reported by those in charge that less than twelve hundred tickets remain to be sold. Many parties are being organized here to attend the big game and it is probable that between six and seven hundred Clarksburgers will join the procession that will invade Fairmont on Thursday.

CRONK DEAD.

FRANKLIN, Pa., Nov. 22.—George P. Cronk, aged 53, who was grand exalted ruler of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks from 1902 to 1903, died Sunday, after an illness of two months.

A Health Bath

Doctors, Nurses and the like, seem to have known that the bath is improved in its efficiency in direct proportion to its antiseptic qualities. The water can be made antiseptic or free from germ life by the liberal use of 20 Mule Team Powdered Boric now sold at drug stores.

The cost is a trifle. The effect is rather surprising. Just try it tonight. Buy it from your druggist.—Advertisement.
